

Program Learning Outcomes Historical/Political Studies

Upon completion of this program, students will demonstrate an understanding of:

1. historical change, continuity and causality;
2. the workings of politics and governance;
3. historical and political perspectives and interpretations;
4. how to conduct and present historical and political research;
5. preparation for an intended career;