

Communications Assess Plan Evidence January 2010

The Communication program has recently been extensively revised and the faculty has accordingly made changes to its assessment plan. The evidence for the revised program will be collected beginning with the Spring 2010 semester.